

COWORKING @ATOL, LJUBLJANA

What are we about?

We are excited to have you as a part of Coworking @Atol, Ljubljana!

We are a coworking community for international business professionals.

Our coworkers are Sales & Marketing experts, travelling business people, entrepreneurs, consultants, freelancers, or others looking for a professional environment.

This information package will provide you with some useful info to get you started on your journey to success with coworking @Atol, Ljubljana!

Why do we cowork?

Professionals who cowork report:

- an increase in business contacts,
- an increased social network,
- increased productivity,
- decreased feelings of loneliness.

Coworking activities

Coworking @Atol, Ljubljana tries to promote a cozy and friendly atmosphere. At the same time, we make sure not to neglect the business opportunities of coworking.

Every Friday we host Palme, a group discussion about a contemporary topic. Every week someone volunteers to present a topic of their choice and lead the discussion. Topics can range from modern trends in the business world to personal stories about recent travelling.

Some of the most important conversations happen when we are not in a business mindset. This is why Atol employees have lunch together in the Antaro building almost every day. Coworkers are encouraged to join!

Lead sharing is strongly emphasized throughout coworking @Atol. One of the largest benefits of working with professionals from outside your own business is the opportunity to increase each others' potential client base.

How to get to us

We are located in the Antaro Building on Leskoškova 9e, Ljubljana near BTC City.

The office is on the 2nd floor at the South entrance.
Normal working hours are 8:30 - 16:30.

Our parking spaces are on the 2nd garage level - ring the bell at the ramp and say you're visiting Atol to enter.

Get to know us! Refer a Friend!

We believe that coworking is a bigger step than simply renting an office. Although our offices are gorgeous and designer-made according to Feng Shui, it is the community that makes coworking truly special.

We invite you to try it out and bring a friend with a free day-pass and other incentives for referring coworkers.

You can come meet us every Friday after work hours on "Project" P.I.V.O. in the nearby bar.

We are looking forward to having you!
